Jim,
You're a real good friend and it was great messing around and getting in trouble this year but you are probably one of my best friends that I have had for my life.
I have a great summer and we will have to get together some time.
I hope when I get my friend.
Good luck in the future and the rest of your life.

Memories Carry On from the first day of school until the day you graduate with a diploma. Not only memories of Homecoming, dances and other activities, but memories of Learning, Loyalty, Pride, Spirit, and Friendship.

As we look back on accomplishments and achievements, both Scholastically and Socially, we will remember Alhambra High School as something very special. We will remember the people who helped us and how we helped others.

The memories we have made here will never be forgotten. As we look back at the good and the bad times, we know we have grown up in the past nine months. The Memories Carry On even after graduation.

Memories are "carrying on by the benches"

Memories are "the activities we win"

Memories are "turning 16 to get your license"

Alhambra Lions go "ON BROADWAY"

The theme for the 19th annual Homecoming was "ON BROADWAY" which turned out to stand for one of the best homecomings Alhambra has ever seen. The week was full of excitement brought forth by float building, carnation sales, and quad activities. The climax of the week came at the homecoming game where the Lions Ripped the Rebels. The Junior Class float, Camelot, came in first place. Tim Perkins and Brenda Hammonds were crowned King and Queen.

Cheer's lead successful year

The 1980-1981 Cheer line did a successful job of leading the crowds at foot ball games, basketball games, and the numerous assemblies that were held over the year.

The varsity line, led by Captain Tori Bohn, and the J.V., led by Kelly Niehuis, worked with their sponsor, Mrs. Smith, to create one of our most active and productive cheer lines in years. They went to Summer Cheer Camp, only to return with superior and excellent ribbons along with the Spirit Stick. They raised money to pay for their uniforms and refreshments for the football and basketball players by selling ribbons and buttons and having a car wash.

Pom participates in Band Competitions

The pom line often performs with the majorettes at the assemblies

The 1980-1981 Pom Line helped to boost school spirit throughout the year at home football and basketball games and at assemblies.

The line, consisting of eleven girls selected through spring tryouts, was led by their captain, Sharon Trostle and Sponsor, Mrs. Smith. They met for practice before school everyday and occasionally after school. They also performed at the Lake Havasu London Bridge Day Competition and other band competitions. They returned from Pom and Cheer Camp with many winning ribbons. To raise money, they sold calendars, tumblers, and had a slave sale. This money was used to pay for camp expenses and uniforms.

Mascots plan for different image

The 1981 Mascots planned to create a different image for themselves on the AHS campus this year, and succeeded. They started by having a totally new kind of spring tryouts where the girls had to perform and take tests as well as meet scholastic requirements. The six chosen were Mary Bonny, Dawn Bushroe, Sylvia Canez, Debbie Griffith, Brenda Hammonds, and Kim White.

They got off to a great start towards a different year by going to cheer camp, a first for mascots. They got involved on campus more than ever by participating in events such as the Homecoming slave sale. They sold spirit buttons to raise money to purchase a new lion suit.

The Mascots attended all the athletic events and helped raise school spirit throughout the year.

Majorettes keep on twirlin'

The Alhambra majorettes for the 1980-1981 school year were Connie Tuggle, Lori Van Zant, and Debbie Hanner. The majorettes met every school day during first hour to practice on their routines.

The majorettes performed at all of the football and basketball games, pep rallies, and sports assemblies. The majorettes always performed with the band playing a chosen piece of music in the background. They often performed with the pom pom line at the assemblies and games.

The majorettes participated in the Lake Havasu London Bridge Day Parade during the month of October.

Suns Assembly rates high with students

Alhambra Student Government had a busy schedule this year. They were the select group of students who represented the entire student body. They brought ideas to the administration as well as planned activities for the students.

Homecoming was the first major activity, following the theme "On Broadway." Student Government held dances and assemblies like Freedom Jam. They participated in service projects such as the Christmas party at the Upward Industries Foundation. Student Government's greatest effort this year, though, was the Suns game to raise money for the Christina Moeller fund. All in all Student Government had a very successful year.

Beginning girls chorus was a regular class that usually does not perform. During the year, the class was allowed to participate in the Christmas Concert on December 18, and other concerts. Since the girls did not have any uniforms, they all just wore dresses and tried to match.

The beginning girls chorus was an all girls choir. The class consisted of fifteen freshman girls and three sophomore girls.

This was a learning class. The students learned how to sight read and note read. They also took writing and oral exams.

The 1980-1981 Marching Lions had a successful year. The band went to the Lake Havasu London Bridge Day Marching Contest and came in second place losing only to Chapparral High School of Las Vegas, Nevada. The Lions also had victories at home, sending three members to regional band and having many people rank highly at solo and ensemble competition.

During the concert season, the band studied the concepts of modern and classical music. They also learned about the lives of the composers. Aside from the musical aspect, the band had many activities which included the Rookie Slave Sale and Initiation Parties, Vandermeade Assembly, and the Awards Banquet.

Orchestra led by new conductor

The Orchestra was directed by Mr. Mike Orlikoff and their four officers.

To be a member of the Orchestra one had to have the ability or will to play an instrument. They met everyday during second hour, and played in school concerts.

The Orchestra had a candle sale to raise money for travel, trophies, letters, and a banquet at the end of the year. They also played concerts at rest homes as a community service.

Is there really Life After Death?

Nikki Sutphin shows her musical talents as she sings a song in the saloon

Once upon a time, out West in Gopher Gulch, the Alhambra Theater Arts Department performed in the production of The Life and Death of Sneaky Fitch

The main character of this comedy was a town bum named Sneaky Fitch, played by Richard McDowell. In the course of the play, he is considered dead by the townspeople and they are very glad to have this man removed from their presence. Their happiness does not last very long. Sneaky Fitch returns to life during his funeral. Being an immortal person, he is treated with the highest respect and soon runs the town.

Rashomon provides view of orient culture

The play Rashomon was put on by the Performing Arts Department. It was based on stories by Ryunosuke Akutagawa. The action took place in the 10th century in Japan.

Rashomon was a fable about three travelers who meet at the Ancient Rashomon Gate, the entrance to the capital city of Kyoto. They discussed a trial that had taken place the previous day. The hearing was about a violent murder and a rape. Throughout the play, there were flashbacks to the crime. These included many fight scenes. Eventually, the truth about the murder is uncovered.

Freshmen on staff, a yearbook first

This year's Fortress Staff had an extra large staff of sixteen members. For the first time, freshmen were allowed to be on the staff. The staff worked hard all year taking pictures, going to activities, and obtaining the information needed to complete the yearbook.

Three staffers, Jerri Sue Jacoby, Dennis Lindley, and Anastacia McCarthy, attended the Arizona Interscholastic

Press Association Workshop at Chandler High School during October to learn new techniques for the production of a successful yearbook.

The newspaper worked very hard towards covering the areas that interested the students most. The staff strived to report what the students wanted to hear and what they would read.

Leading the staff, Editor-in-Chief Diana Lacek and Advisor Martin W. Krey helped the staff cover the latest events going on in and around the school. The entire staff felt proud of their outstanding work throughout the year.

Exchange students enjoy AHS

Hi Alhambra, You've been one of the most important parts of my AFS experience here, and it has been one of the parts I've loved the most

Since the first day I've enjoyed being at Alhambra. It is pretty different from Belgium, but it's alot more fun. The school spirit, social activities, and the many different courses offered are things I've never experienced before and liked so much. But most of all I've loved having friends here and being a part of school life. In the short year I've been here, I've learned so much, and changed my ideas about lots of things, and got a broader view about life. It'll be hard to leave my family, the nice weather and all the nice people. I'll miss the hamburger, and school sports, and so many other things Sincerely, Kris Geens

I have really enjoyed being here in Arizona and going to Alhambra High School. This year is a year I'll remember for the rest of my life because often I had many experiences and grown up a lot I've learned to accept people as they are and also to be really friendly to people because I realize that this is the only way I can make friends and enjoy my stay here I got to meet different people with different life styles and I really got to know them better. The friends I've made here will be my friends forever and those I have not yet met, it does not imply that you are not my friend. But I have not had opportunity of knowing you better and if I had done that you will naturally be my friend; so, therefore, I'm a friend of everybody's because I think everyone is unique and in their own way someone special. I have really had a wonderful year. I love you all. Ruby Quist

Hi, My Name is Shannon Laufavist, and I'm from Milwaukie, Oregon. I think the people here at Alhambra are really neat and I want to thank everyone for making my AFS experience more enjoyable I also want to encourage people to go places with AFS, for it would be a memorable experience that I think they would enjoy. Sincerely, Shannon

Parnassus moves to honors

Parnassus was a group of gifted students who had an active interest in the arts. Some of the activities were going to the theatre, opera, symphony, ballet, and museums when they were available.

All of the money that was taken in from fund raising projects was used towards getting tickets for the various outings. The students learned about the arts and gained a greater appreciation for the arts.

The sponsors were Mrs. Janet Moore and Mr. John Campbell. The president was Janet Caglioti, vice president was Agnes Bua, and Secretary-Treasurer was Brenda Lehman. The membership requirements included a 4.0 average and to remain on the Honor Roll and to have an interest in the arts.

Brian Homsey Divisional Champion

This year's Varsity Wrestling team was coached by Mr. Bill Anderson and Mr. Bill Gumm Jr. These coaches were the fourth new coaches in as many years. They had a very poor start dropping their first match to Peoria 41-18 but for an inexperienced team, it was not that bad.

The team improved through the season gaining momentum. Their last match was against South. It started off slowly, but as the heavier weights got going, so did the action. Bruce Homsey pinned his man in 46 seconds. Brian Homsey also won with a pin. Burman Graham, a first year wrestler, got into trouble early and was near getting pinned, but in the end pulled out a victory, 9-8.

In divisionals, Brian Homsey was Division Champ. Jim Wisener took second and Bruce Homsey and Byron Green were fourth. The team overall placed sixth.

The image is a highly degraded scan of a document, possibly a ledger or record book. The page is oriented vertically. At the top, there is a header section with several lines of text, including what appears to be "MARSHALL ISLAND" and "RECORD". Below this, the page is divided into columns by vertical lines. The text within these columns is illegible due to the poor quality of the scan. There are some faint markings and numbers visible, but they cannot be transcribed accurately. The overall appearance is that of an old, worn, and poorly preserved document.

With nine returning players, the 1980 Varsity Baseball team had a promising season. Coached by Marv Nevins the team took a second place finish in the PUHS Recess Tournament.

Pitching several winning games throughout the season were pitchers Rick Estrella, Brian Swain, Ken Turza, and Lorin Baker. Out of the first four games each pitched a winning game.

Mark Higgins, who was cut from the 1979 squad, did a very good job. Coach Nevins said the most outstanding players were Brian Ingle and Bob Chambers.

Camelback and Carl Hayden were the Lions' stiffest opponents. Alhambra took three out of four games with Camelback but lost a close one with Carl Hayden.

At Fortress press time, the Lions were hoping for a successful season. In their first game they lost to Tolleson 3-1 on a very muddy playing field.

Track team races to victory: 7 and 1

One of the many highlights of the 1980 track season was when Fred Marple set a new high jump record of six feet eleven inches. Tom Williams was voted most dedicated by the team members of the 1980 season. The team placed second in the Phoenix Union

High School Relays, and third in the divisionals.

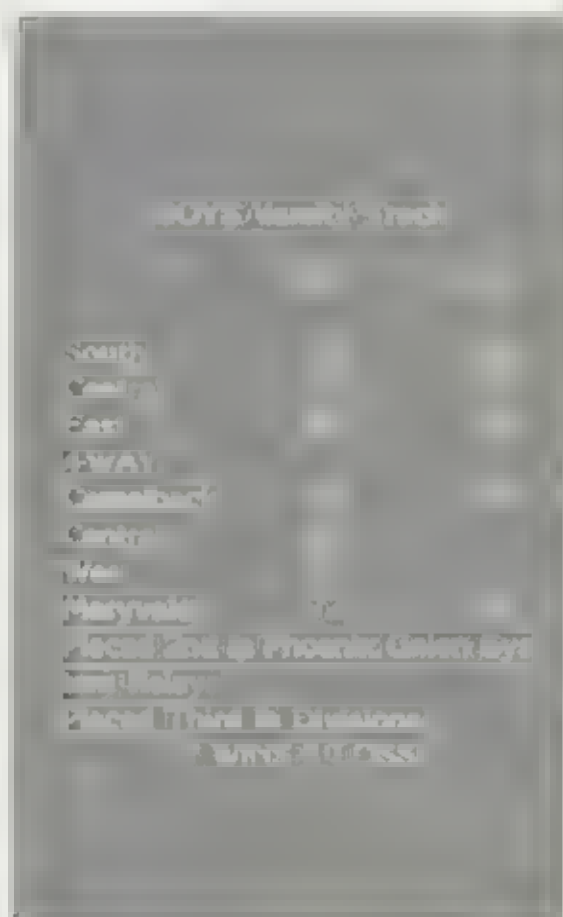

The returning lettermen for the 1980-1981 season are Tom Williams, Mark Mancuso, Tim Castillo, Ted Griego, Phil Pippins, Fernando Trujillo, Mike Farrell, Benji Lawler, Jim Wisener, Tracey

Pierce, and Paul Brandon. Practice started February with the first meet in March.

The team was coached by Hugh Morrison, who led the team to a seven win and one loss season in 1980.

Members of the Varsity track team race against each other to practice for an upcoming meet.

Marty Mathis, a sophomore, practices pole vaulting for an upcoming track meet.

An unidentified flying object vaults over the bar during track practice on a windy, rain-threatening day.

Ted Lindo, a senior, is practicing his form to clear the bar on his skilled job of high jumping. As yet, a state champion in this event was Fred Marple.

New policy provides better school year

The 1980-1981 Alhambra administrative staff worked extra hard to provide a better school year for all Alhambra students.

There were many new programs and policies created throughout the year. A successful new program, night school, showed a high enrollment. Some new policies were created such as the new absence policy, tardy policy, and a new method for registration that was used for second semester. These were used to help halt the declining enrollment in the school.

The returning administrative staff was Mr. Wellesley Goodwin (principal), Mrs. Lucene Billing (assistant principal), Mr. Victor Barraza (assistant principal), Mr. Keith Nixon (assistant principal), and Mr. Rene Diaz (assistant principal).

Mr. Goodwin considered the 1980-1981 school year to be a success for all.

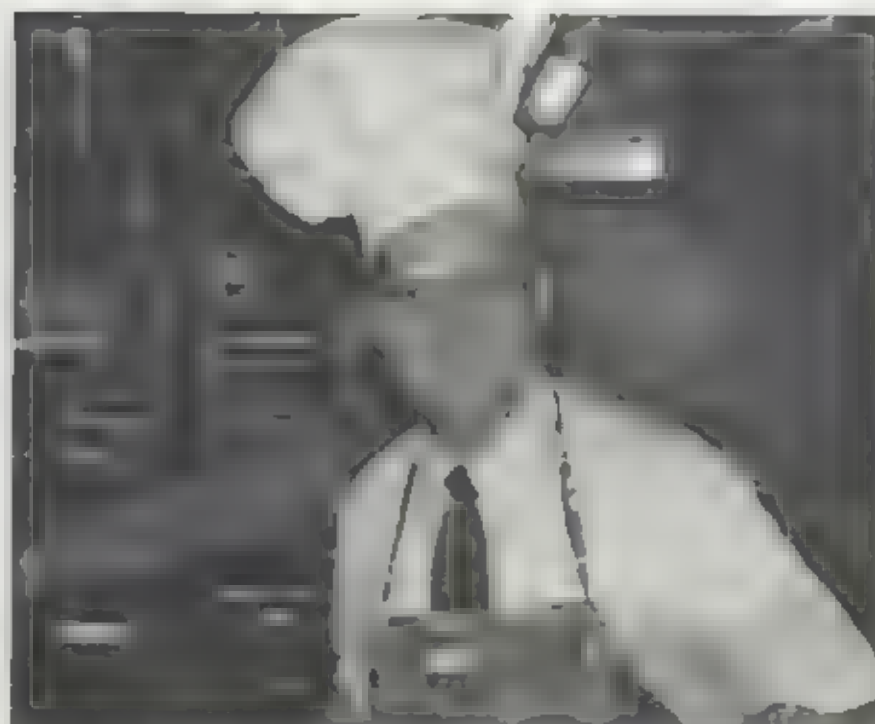

Mr. Goodwin shows his LION pride at the Homecoming assembly by wearing his "ON BROADWAY" T-shirt.

Mr. Goodwin and Darth Vader are settling an argument on who actually won the Halloween costume contest.

Juniors have outstanding year

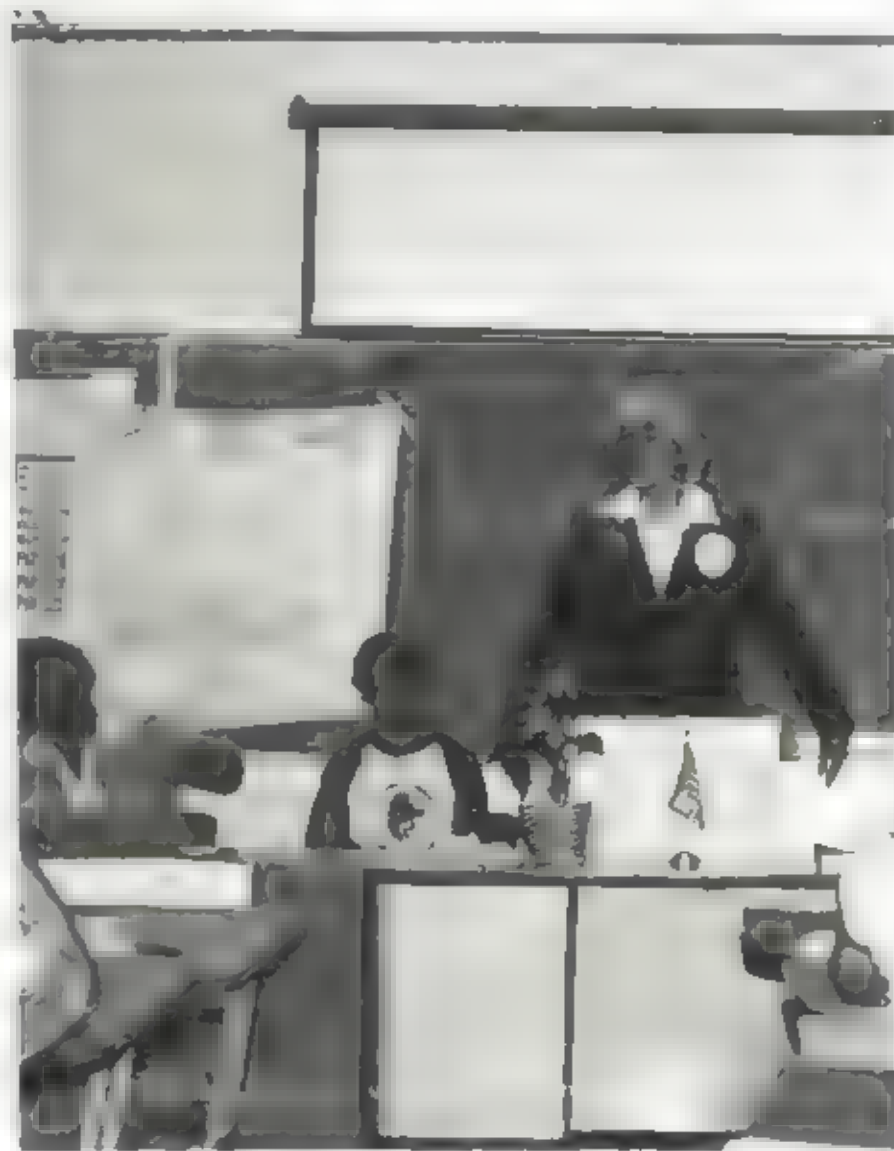

Mr. Johnson sponsored the class of 1982, with Mike Olsker acting as President, Barbara Pettett as Vice President, and Kathryn Smallidge as Secretary Treasurer. The Senators were David Etz, Rhon Smart, and Randall Kemp.

Some of the activities planned were selling Homecoming T-Shirts, car-wash tickets, and Heart-O-Grams for Valentines Day. The money paid for the 1981 Junior-Senior Prom at the Sheraton Greenway Inn.

The students learned to work together while having fun. The class contributed time towards the Sun's game, a fund raiser for the Hale and Moeller families. The Junior class also contributed numerous hours of hard work on the winning Homecoming float "Camelot".

This year's Junior class learned not only about responsibility in government, but they also learned to work together changing and improving Alhambra High School.

Eddie Amavisca leads Class of '83'

This year's Sophomore Class was led by president Eddie Amavisca. Vice President was Julie Blackshire and Secretary Treasurer, Paige DeHart. The three senators were Terry Pfelfer, Susie Sandvig, and Robert Hallada.

To raise money, they held activities such as T-shirt sales, car washes, and bake sales. The money was used to sponsor the Prom, class reunion, and for a gift at graduation.

The Sophomore Class has learned much since that first year at Alhambra High School. They are older, wiser, and have finally learned their way around the school.

Lisa Smith leads Class of '84'

Julie Tang Sec. Treasurer Lisa Smith President MaryBeth Groves Vice Pres

Freshman president this year was Lisa Smith. Other officers included Mary Beth Groves as Vice-President and Julie Tang as Secretary-Treasurer. The freshman sponsor was Judy Eisenburg.

To be an officer, they had to get 70 to 80 signatures on a petition before qualifying to run. Then they would have their speeches, the votes, and wait to see who would win.

In the election there was a tie between Lisa Smith and Dan Masters, for President. Lisa Smith won. Also a tie between Julie Tang and Monica Rengal for secretary-treasurer. Julie Tang won.

To raise money the freshmen sold Phoenix Suns tickets, buttons and pins. The proceeds went to the Hale family and to the Moller family as well as for the freshmen's Junior-Senior prom.

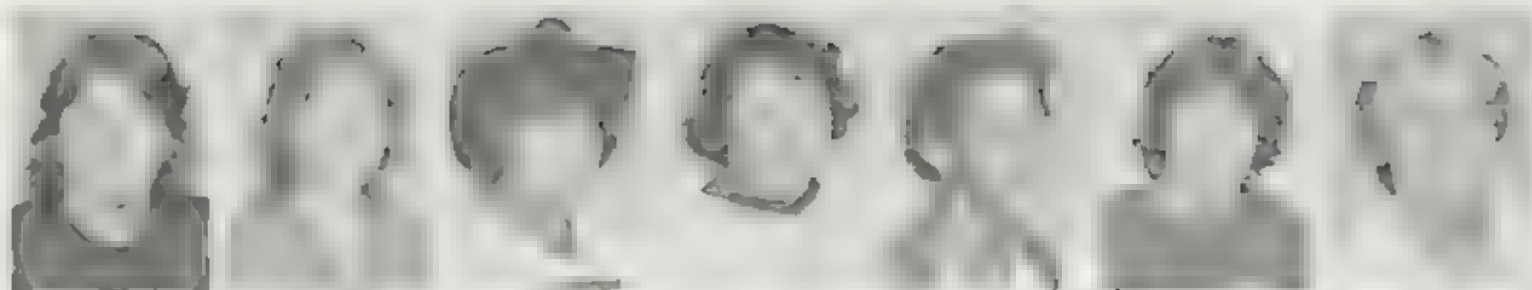

The students learned to help others, keep positive attitudes, be responsible, and to be helpful to the school while having fun. The student government made this a great year for the freshmen.

Julie Pettett, Kellie Epperson, Freshman class Senators.

Dear Alhambra High,

This has been another year to remember in your memories of Alhambra High School. I would like to express my thanks to everyone who made this 1980-1981 Fortress possible: First to American Yearbook Co. and Mr. Chuck Bursell who gave us excellent advice and printing. Next to Mrs. Virginia Poynter and the Bookstore for helping with the sale of the yearbook. Also to Fran Smith, Ron Christopher, and Pako's Photography for the use of their excellent photographs they let us use. Also to all my teachers who let me out of class to work on the yearbook.

My greatest thanks go to Mr. Cunningham and my staff. Mr. Cunningham has put much time and extra effort, he has much to be thanked for. This year we have had an extra large staff which was hard to work with. I also thank my staff who put in a lot of hard work and extra time, and, may I add, a little hard pressure from the editor! First my Assistant Editor Jacqueline Jacoby who I thank for all of the words being spelled correctly. Gary Kern, my Photography editor, who we may thank for the pictures along with his two assistants Dennis Lindley and Jon Brinton. They, too, put up with long hard hours and much work, as they would say, "why don't you become a photographer." And the rest of my staff Keith de Laet for the wonderful division pages and hard time he had with Academics. Terry Paulus for Sports which we thought we'd never finish. Cathy Britt on Clubs thanks for getting it done on time. My Classess people Stacy DePuma, Katie O'Neal, Tracy Lachman, Donna Szczepaniak, Julie Tiscareno, and Kim Kiel. Also, we had three students who were second semester students, GERALYN STATEN, CHRIS GEENS, Kelly Hudspeth.

This past year has had many memories which I hope we have covered in the 1981 Fortress. The staff has put up with many long hours and hard work, giving up their free time. To be hassled and yelled at to get their deadlines done isn't easy. Just ask any one of the staffers. I'm sure they'll say along with me, "If I had to do it over, I would."

Sincerely Yours,

Anastacia McCarthy
Editor-in-Chief

GERALYN STATEN and CHRIS GEENS are two new staffers for second semester
